

Jermaine Loy
Managing Director

Singapore Economic Development Board

Mr Jermaine Loy was appointed Managing Director of the Singapore Economic Development Board (EDB) on 1 March 2025. He chairs the DesignSingapore Advisory Board and also serves on the Boards of SG Growth Capital, the Agency for Science, Technology and Research (A*STAR) and the Maritime and Port Authority of Singapore.

Before joining the EDB, Jermaine served in the Prime Minister's Office (PMO) from April 2021 to December 2024 as the Principal Private Secretary to then-Prime Minister and current Senior Minister Mr Lee Hsien Loong.

Prior to that, he worked on various portfolios across the Singapore Public Service, including on planning Singapore's land-use needs at the Ministry of National Development, on healthcare financing and subsidy policies at the Ministry of Health, as well as on international trade policy at the Ministry of Trade and Industry.

Jermaine is a Sloan Fellow and has an MBA from the MIT Sloan School of Management. He is also an alumnus of the Technical University of Munich, where he received his master's degree in electrical engineering.