Grace Tan
Executive Vice President & Member of the Executive Committee

Singapore Economic Development Board

Ms Grace Tan is an Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of the Singapore Economic Development Board (EDB).

She oversees EDB's Brand, Marketing and Communications, Corporate Audit, Legal, Workplace and Knowledge Experience, as well as Finance, Risk Assurance and Procurement divisions.

Prior to her current appointment, Grace was with Singapore's Ministry of Finance as the Director of Performance and Evaluation. There, she led efforts to uplift capabilities in measuring and demonstrating the effectiveness of programme outcomes, enhanced performance reporting, and helped strengthen accountability and governance within the public sector.

Grace joined EDB in 2002 and has held various roles, including strengthening operational efficiency and effectiveness in the Finance and Procurement divisions, and ensuring the alignment of risk management with strategy through the Risk Assurance unit. She was also responsible for overseeing initiatives in policies and products within the Business Environment division to help companies deepen their capabilities in innovation and talent development in Singapore.

Grace holds a Bachelor of Accountancy degree from Nanyang Technological University.
