

Grace Tan
Executive Vice President
Singapore Economic Development Board

Ms Grace Tan is the Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of the Singapore Economic Development Board (EDB). She oversees EDB's Admin, Corporate Records and Information Services, Corporate Audit, Legal, as well as Finance, Risk Assurance and Procurement division.

Prior to her current appointment, Grace was with Singapore's Ministry of Finance as the Director of Performance and Evaluation. There, she led efforts to uplift capabilities in measuring and demonstrating effectiveness in programme outcomes, enhanced performance reporting efforts and helped strengthen accountability and governance within the public sector.

Grace joined EDB in 2002 and held various roles including strengthening operational efficiencies and effectiveness in the Finance and Procurement divisions, and ensuring alignment of risks management with strategy through the Risk Assurance unit. She was also responsible for overseeing initiatives in policies and products within the Business Environment division to help companies deepen their capabilities in innovation and talent development in Singapore.

Grace holds a Bachelor of Accountancy degree from the Nanyang Technological University.
